5 WAYS TO BUILD YOUR CAREER

Kaiser Permanente encourages lifelong learning and job growth for all employees. Looking to take your next career step? Try these tips from Michael Brown, senior vice president of Human Resources Consulting for national functions.

1. Build expertise in a subject matter that interests you.

2. Take ownership of your role and put your personal stamp on it.

3. Embrace adversity as a learning experience; it builds resiliency.

4. Develop and grow through diverse work experiences — different work schedules, locations, managers.

5. Be active in your unit-based team as a way to develop leadership skills.
